Dear Kanji and Naomi Ishizumi,

Our warmest congratulations on your announcement of Ishizumi & Company as an official supporter of the 400th Anniversary of Japan-British relations. To be partnered on the level with British Airways and leading Japanese and British corporations is a prestigious recognition and is a testament to your achievements over the many generations.

On behalf of The North American Post and Soy Source newspapers, and the non-profit Hokubei Hochi Foundation, please accept our congratulations and appreciation for your accomplishments of your company in preserving and promoting Japanese culture within our global community.

Best wishes for your continued success.

Sincerely,

Tomio Moriguchi
